WHO IS DAN RAFFERTY?

A career musician who spent the 70's & 80's as a member of one of the hottest bands in the Las Vegas casino circuit, Dan honed his skills as an amazing performer, entertainer & musician. He grew up in a barbershop family, learning how to piece together complex vocal harmonies like puzzle pieces. These various skills were secondary to the joyous, happy, caring nature Dan put out his whole life. Anyone who shared the stage with him will tell you that he had a way of making them better musicians & performers, and of making his audiences happy. Today, Derek Rafferty, Dan's son and co-founder of The DRB, keeps the name The Dan Rafferty Band alive and brings Dan's spirit to each and every show. The band is filled with the most amazing musical and performing talent you will find anywhere, and making sure that every person who watches a DRB show has a smile on their face and a great story to tell is our goal.
